#462
I heard the voice of Jesus say, Come unto me and rest: Lay down, thou weary one, lay down they head up on my breast. I came to Jesus as I was, so weary worn and sad, I found in him a resting place and he has made me glad.

#437
O God, you search me and you know me. All my thoughts lie open to your gaze. When I walk or lie down you are before me; ever the maker and keeper of my days. You know my resting and my rising. You discern my purpose from afar, And with love everlasting you besiege me; In every moment of life or death, you are.

#350
Precious body, precious blood, seen as bread and wine; here the Lord prepares the feast divine. Bread of love is broken now, cup of life is poured; come share the supper of the Lord. This is the bread of God coming down from Heav’n, giving life to us, to all the world.

#400
To you, O God, I live up my soul; lift up my spirit to my Lord. To you I lift up my soul.

Cut It Out..................................................

Prayer for a Pandemic
May we who are merely inconvenienced
remember those whose lives are at stake.
May we who have no risk factors
remember those most vulnerable.
May we who have the luxury of working from home
remember those who must choose between preserving their health or making their rent.
May we who have the flexibility to care for our children when their schools close remember those who have no options.
May we who have to cancel our trips
remember those that have no place to go.
May we who are losing our margin money in the tumult of the economic market remember those who have no margin at all.
May we who settle in for a quarantine at home
remember those who have no home.
During this time when we cannot physically wrap our arms around each other, let us yet find ways to be the loving embrace of God to our neighbors.
Amen.
